
Sunrise Movement

A climate revolution, and a fight for environmental justice

Bailey Magnuson

“Our vision is simple... We believe everyone should have access to clear air and water, full pantries of food, affordable housing, free public transportation, good and meaningful jobs, vibrant community centers, and lives filled with joy. We’re building a movement to make that happen.”

A Green New Deal

Stop the climate crisis

Create millions of (green) good paying union jobs

Invest in racial and economic justice

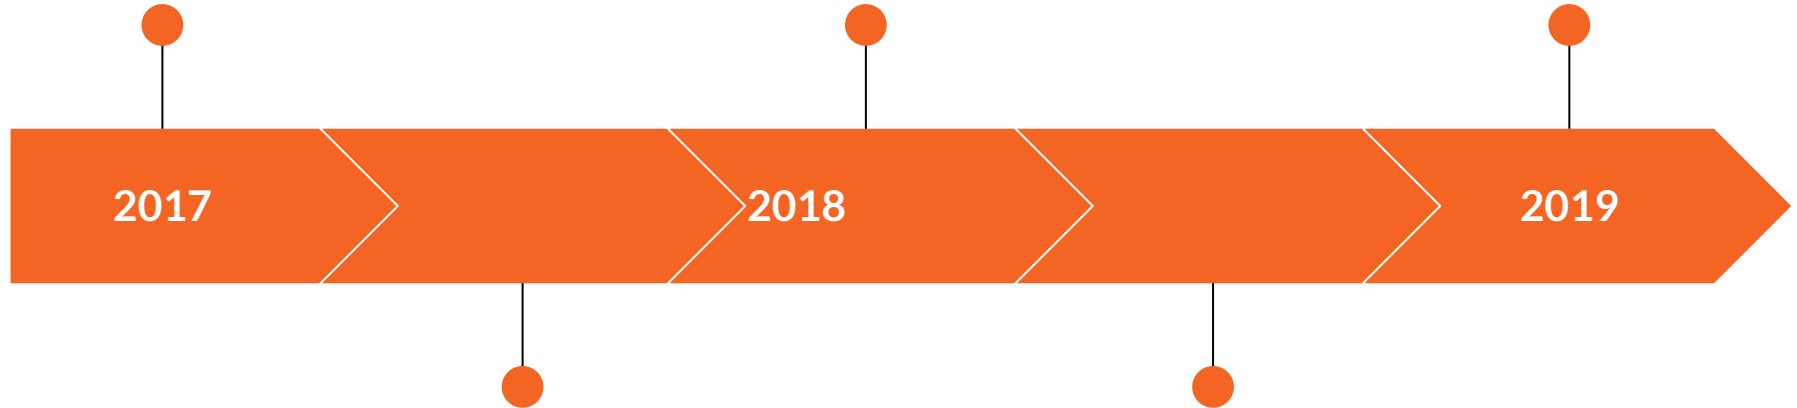

Reimagine our government to work for everyday people

Sunrise Movement is founded

The sit-in: Sunrise takes to the national stage

Sunrise popularizes GND and climate change becomes a central issue in presidential primaries

Past Work and Wins

Current Campaign Priorities

Funding: An Unwavering Moral Stance

“Capitalism and white supremacy leave precious little wealth in this country unspoiled by pain and exploitation. We accept money in service of dismantling the systems that created our country’s massive wealth inequality in the first place. Ultimately, a donation is a reflection of alignment, not of endorsement.”

Stakeholders

Activists

Political Leaders

Wealthy Fossil Fuel Industry Executives

Allies

All humans!

Community

“WE GROW OUR POWER THROUGH ORGANIZING OUR COMMUNITIES...Building a mass movement of ordinary people across race and class is the only way we transform society.”

3 Principles

Community is central to who the Sunrise Movement is in all of its defining principles

Thank You!

Works Cited

Sunrise Movement, 18 Nov. 2023, www.sunrisemovement.org/.

“The Sunrise Movement: How a US Grassroots Youth Movement Helped Set the National Climate Agenda for Rapid Change.” Rapid Transition Alliance, rapidtransition.org/stories/the-sunrise-movement-how-a-us-grassroots-youth-movement-helped-set-the-national-climate-agenda-for-rapid-change/. Accessed 3 May 2024.
