

Ecocritical Perspectives on Nordic Children's and Young Adult Literature

Program, Bergen, October 25th - 26th 2018

Thursday 25th October:

Main location: Campus Kronstad, C121

9.00-9.15	Nina & Lykke: Welcome. About NaChiLitCul: Nature in Children's Literature and Culture
9.15-9.30	Reinhard Hennig: The Ecocritical Network for Scandinavian Studies: Background and Perspectives
	Session 1. Chair: Ture Schwebs / Lykke
9.30-10.00	Kari Haarder Ekman: Living a wild life in Svalbard
10.00-10.30	Sara Pankenier Weld: Sami selves in Lapland
10.30-11.00	Corina Löwe: Brave new world, but what shall we eat?
11.00-12.00	Lunch
Parallels	Session 2. Chair: Ahmed Khateeb		Session 3. Chair: Marianne Røskeland Location: D122
12.00-12.30	Olle Widhe: The eco-movement in Swedish children's literature 1968-76		Ruth S. Stokke: Polyphonic representations of nature in the picturebook Sølvmånen /Silbamánnu
12.30-13.00	Camille Deschamps Vierø: The founding role of the seasons in The Wonderful Adventures of Nils Holgersson		Åsa Nilsson Skåve: On the works of Laestadius
13.00-13.30	Sofija Christensen: Relating to unfamiliar landscapes
13.30-14.00	Coffee /tea
	Session 4. Chair: Rikke Frøyland
14.00-14.30	Lydia Wistisen: Waste Aesthetics in Swedish Children's Literature
14.30-15.00	Katarzyna Anna Tunkiel: Problematic Nature
15.00-15.30	Øygunn Skodvin Prestegård: Nature in post millennium Nordic dystopias

Dwell: 18.00

Friday 26th October:

Main location: Campus Kronstad, C121

8.45-9.00	Introductory
	Session 5. Chair: Nina Goga
9.00-9.30	Atle Krogstad: Representation of animals, place and natural surroundings
9.30-10.00	Aslaug Nyrnes: Girl and horse as companion species
10.00-10.30	Break
	Session 6. Chair: Hege Emma Rimmereide
10.30-11.00	Toni Lahtinen & Anne Ketola: Wavering waters: Changing representations of water in the translations of Emmi Itäranta's Memory of Water
11.00-11.30	Anna Salomonsson: Water, wilderness and 'glocality' in Mats Söderlund's dystopian fantasy Hotet ("The Threat")
11.30-12.00	Lykke Guanio-Uluru: Plants in Nordic YA Climate-fiction: Mæhle, Itäranta and Gaarder
12.00-13.00	Lunch
	Coffee / tea Session 7. Chair: Berit Bjørlo
13.00-13.30	Magne Drangeid: Inger Hagerup's poetry for children
13.30-14.00	Anett Almgren White: Climate change and its effect on the relation between man and other species in two children's picturebooks
14.00-14.30	Malin Drugge: Nature in Swedish Children's literature
14.30-15.00	Nina & Lykke: Concluding perspectives		